CALUMET YOUNG LADY IN MISSIONARY WORK IN CHINA

MISS ETHEL M. LONG WRITES IN-TERESTING LETTER OF EXPERIENCES.

Miss Ethel M. Long, daughter Rev. and Mes. L. K. Long of the Calunet Congregational church, who went o Lintsing, China, and full to empay n missionary work, writes home interstinuty of her struggles with the inwhich she is endeavoring to maste that she may be better prepared for ter work. She is enthusiastic ovthe customs of the Chinese people and ives the following interesting accounof a recent visit to the pagoda nearby "The other day we had such an it

This puroda can be seen for mile mound and I have been anxious eve since I came here to get out to se t. It is so interesting as one draw searer to see the details grow,

This pagoda is nine stories, his with four windows in each story look ing in the four directions. The differ our stories are not built exactly alik ent nearly so. It is built of stone, we and brick and is in a very lad stor d'repair at present. Most of the o ide ornaments have fallen off ome of the thoring on the inside h allen: through

"From the first floor we went up ; very harrow dark flight of slipper; time steps, twenty-two or twenty three in number, to the second flow On the way an we passed a little opening in the wall lending to the introw ledge on the outside and we vere told that it was considered, " ormer times, a very special act dained just what the worshipper did after arriving on the outside Jedze; perhaps he climbed up to a window there he could more easily climb down the prices placed on them,

"We climbed the eight flights of teps, getting a more beautiful view over the surrounding country at every anding One person counted over 200 villages which were seen from on window of this pageda and this will sive you some idea as to the frequeny with which the villages are seat ered through the country. We could not see so many for it was a cloudy fay. At many of the landings in the agoda were niches in which gods had ormorly been placed and in some daces pieces of the idols still remain of. At nearly every landing there wer wo or three stone tablets covered with characters, some of which seemd to bear the names of those who had iven money for building or repairing he building. How we did wish we ould read all that was written,

We were so interested in booking at things that we got to the top before we knew it; and then we had to come down all those dark, narrow, slippery teps again! I was quite lame before ve got down and had a hard time ; ome down any stairs for several dress ifterwards. But I have such a satisfied feeling now every time I see the ageda, (and we can see it very plain-

JUDGE O'BRIEN GIVEN CREDIT.

Marquette's Postmaster Contest Said to Have Boen Settled by Him.

The appointment of b. S. Eyrne ostmaster at Marquette is attributed, in large measure to the fact that Judge O'Brien of Calumet interested himself in his candidacy to the limit, do ing everything in his power to bring it to a invorable basic, says the Mining Journal, Judge O'Brien, who left few days ago for Washington, arrived there vesterday morning, it is believe and it is possible that he put the fin shing touches on the effort to land Mr. Byrne. Mr. Byrne also has been in Washington the next few days, as has E. O. Wrost, of Plint, the national committeeman.

It is suggested that perhaps Judge O'Brien and Mr. Wood were finally in agreement that Mr. Eyrne should be

Plan for a Monument at Panama Approed by Herrick.

Paris, March 18 .- A desire to hav monument erected at Panama is ommemoration of the connection of France with the great enterprise of connecting the Atlantic and Pacific oceans was informally expressed t Ambausador Myron T. Herrick The project was expinined by Louis Jaras Secretary of the induential group of Frenchmen, composing the Franco American committee, which has already obtained the approval of the French foreign office of the plan.

President Wilson, it was pointed our had approved the idea when it wa Morton Fullerton of Norwich, Conn who was visiting America as Commissioner of the Lyons Internations Exposition. Mr. Fullerton then ex plained that the suggestion of Cabrie Hanotaux, ex-minister of foreign at fairs, and president of the Franco America committee, was that the mon ument should be raised from subscrip tions gathered among the French peo

It is the wish of the committee that the United States government, if b property the suggestion, should select site for the monument on the canal. A arge commission, including some of the most noted men in France, would then visit the United States and Panone in connection with the plan.

Amocosunder Hetrick replied that be exarded the proposal as admirable for principle and said he would commudicate it to Washington, when it was: brought formally before him for conthis should be done.
